

Plunger Ace No. 21

(Water based plunger tip lubricant)

Plunger Ace No. 21 provides benefits to the working environment by reducing smoke, improving cleanliness, and enhancing fire safety.

Plunger Ace No.21 excellent in adhesion and dispersion under high temperatures, and it contains ingredients, which reduce the wear of tips, and sleeves remarkably as demonstrated by its superb load with standability.

Performance Benefits

1. None Pigment Product for small and middle sized machine
2. Excellent lubricity.
3. Forms a film possesses excellent heat.
4. Contains wax and does not pile up around the pour hole

Typical Properties

Appearance: Milk-yellow

Specific Gravity(15°C): 0.982

Viscosity(25°C): 5.0Mps

PH: 9.5

Use

1. Drip and air-dispersion. (air-dispersion applied immediately after dripping)
2. Spraying. (available with Nichibei's "mixing Block")

These applications, as well as other methods of application may be suitable for your working conditions.

Storage

Products should be stored on their sides in a clean, dry place and protected from extremes of temperature.

Health and Safety

Under normal conditions of use is not known to offer any serious health hazard. We would however, recommend good standards of industrial hygiene are observed when handling this product.

Package

18 kilogram pail /180 kilogram drum